3. ROBERT EDWARDS REPORT.

The following notice has appeared in various newspapers:

REDEVELOPMENT OF SOUTH AUSTRALIAN MUSEUM

The Government of South Australia has received an Interim Report and recommendations for the redevelopment of the South Australian Museum.
The Government has accepted this report as a basis for redevelopment of the Museum and adjacent public areas and has directed that the Report be released to allow public discussion and submissions.
The Interim Report reviewed the existing structure and functions of the Museum and its present operation, including housing and conservation of Collections. It also examined and reported on the development of future display and exhibition policies and the facilities needed to achieve these policies.

Copies of the Report are available from the Director of the South Australian Museum, North Terrace, Adelaide or the State Information Centre, 25 Grenfell Street, Adelaide at a cost of $2.00.

Individuals and interested parties (including organisations) are now invited to make written submissions on the Interim Report, and it would be of assistance if these submissions were lodged NOT LATER THAN MARCH 31, 1980.

Please forward Submissions to -
The Secretary,
S.A. Museum Redevelopment Project Committee,
C/- Department for the Arts,
Edmund Wright House,
59 King William Street,
ADELAIDE.
G.P.O. Box 2308, Adelaide, 5001.

Members are urged to write letters commenting on this Interim Report.
