NOTICE OF GENERAL MEETING

The second general meeting of the Society for 1979 will be a Special Meeting to be held in the

LECTURE THEATRE 101, FIRST FLOOR NAPIER BUILDING, (enter from North Terrace)

UNIVERSITY OF ADELAIDE

AT

8.15PM MONDAY 23 APRIL 1979

The Society will be co-operating with the University of Adelaide in connection with a Lecture to be given by

RHYS JONES

Entitled

"A THOUSAND GENERATIONS AND MORE."

This Lecture deals with how the Australian environment and landscape altered during the long human occupation before the arrival of the European and how the original inhabitants adapted and survived these changes.

Dr. Rhys Jones, Senior Fellow in Prehistory in the Australian National University, who is one of the most prominent young experts on Australian Aboriginal archaeology, is giving the 1979 ANU Convocation Lectures in centres throughout Australia. 'The Last Tasmanian', the documentary film of his research, has recently attracted considerable public attention, and controversy.

All members and friends are welcome.

No charge will be made for the Lecture.

A charge of $2.00 will be made for the supper following the Lecture if you wish to remain.
