NOTICES

1. FIELD TRIP OCTOBER 12, 13 and 14.

Information is required with regard to camp sites etc. which will assist in the completion of the overall report on the Roonka excavations currently being investigated.

A field trip to assist Mr. G. L. Pretty, Curator of Archaeology, S.A. Museum will be arranged over the long weekend in October, 1974 to carry out a search and survey of the plains west of Blanchetown on the River Murray.

Details with regard to this field trip will be available in the next issue of this Journal.

Members interested in participating in this field trip are asked to make note in their diaries of the dates, i.e.

Saturday 12th October to Monday 14th October, 1974 and contact the Secretary so that we can make an appraisal of the numbers.

2. ROONKA EXCAVATIONS

Volunteer diggers are required for the Roonka Excavation over the period Saturday 24th August to Sunday 1st September, 1974.

There is a need of at least 45 volunteers for a period of nine days extending from 24th August to 1st September, 1974.

Preference will be given to persons having experience in any of the archaeological techniques of trowelling, planning and photography, although lack of such experience will not be held a disability. Preference will also be given to persons able to spend the full period at the site.

The museum is able to furnish tent and stretcher accommodation, excavation equipment and largely subsidise the food costs. However there will be a nominal charge of $1.00 per head per day for food. Transport from Adelaide can also be arranged. All personal expenses and costs of travel to Adelaide will be held the responsibility of the volunteers.

Anyone able to offer a definite commitment is asked to communicate with Graeme Pretty, Curator of Archaeology, South Australian Museum, Adelaide, 5000 (telephone 223 8377 or 332 4607 a.h.) up to and including 3rd August, 1974.
